We are pleased to submit our Final Report of the recommended Charter amendments. The Charter Revision Commission (CRC) has reviewed, discussed and accepted the Board of Selectmen's recommendations included in your June 21, 2019, transmittal.

Attached is a red-lined version of the proposed changes to the entire Charter document.

Also attached is an updated summary of the recommended action from the CRC in response to the Board of Selectmen's Charge dated August 16, 2018, and recent discussions between the BOS and CRC.

We are grateful for the opportunity to have served the Town in this important process. It is our hope that our efforts will strengthen, and provide some clarification to, an already well-constructed document.

Respectfully,
