Hebron Historic Properties Commission

Mission Statement

- Through the preservation and protection of historic properties within the town (of both architectural aspects and historical integrity), the Historic Properties Commission works to promote the educational, cultural, economic and general welfare of the Town of Hebron.

Hebron: Approved by the Connecticut Colonial Legislature over 300 years ago.

Let's look back at her history.

How can the HPC fulfill its mission of “preservation and protection”?

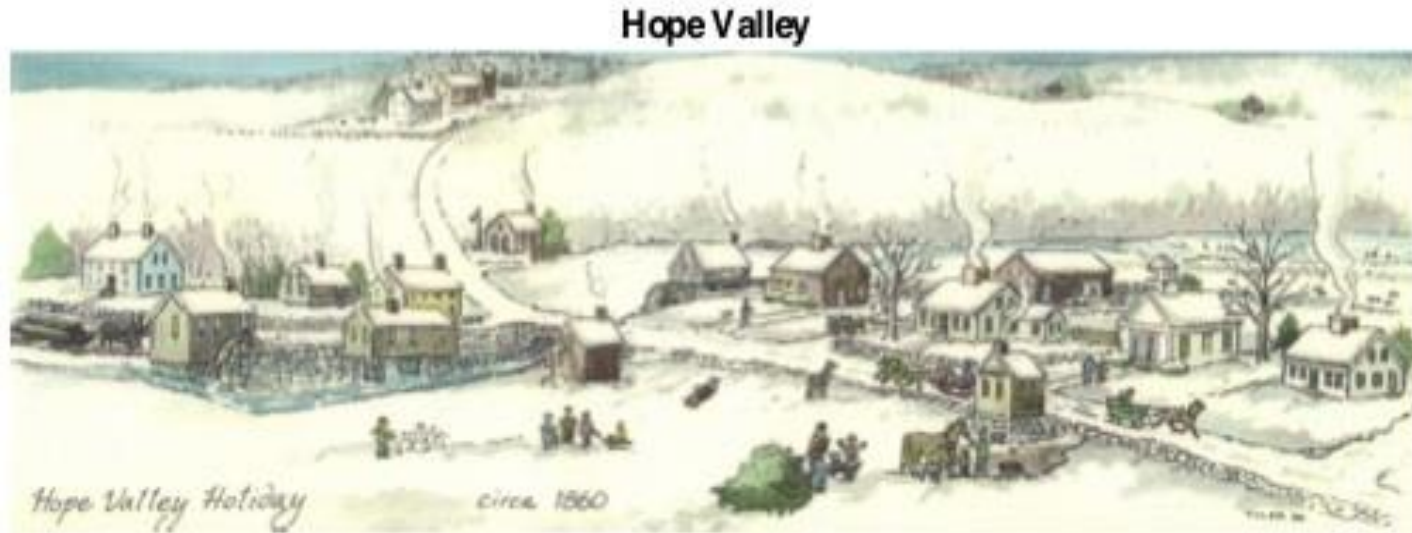

Sequence of Hebron Development

Beginning in 1708, after CT Colonial Legislature's approval, Hebron residents established:

- ~ Churches
- ~ Water-Powered Mills
- ~ Communities
- ~ Schools
- ~ Cemeteries
- ~ General Stores & Post Offices
- ~ Railroad

In addition to homes, these are what we must “preserve & protect”.

Certified Local Government

- CLG can help maintain local historic preservation programs that will influence zoning & permitting decisions critical to historic preservation; i.e., better “preservation through partnership” with P & Z Commission.

P & Z Collaboration

Toomey's Crossing is the culmination of over six years of effort to create a tasteful blend of the charm of yesterday with the needs of today and tomorrow.

We are creating a five unit mixed use condominium project and a residential rental community in the Hebron Green district of our lovely town center.

With the encouragement, input and cooperation of the various town offices, departments, commissions and staff, this project has now begun.

All necessary approvals have been secured for the first phase and construction has now been started.

This project conforms to the town of Hebron plan of development and has been reviewed by all necessary state agencies.

As we proceed with this project we believe that you will find it a warm and welcome addition to our community.

Certified Local Government

- In all its work, CLG tries to maintain preservation standards as established by the Secretary of the Interior.
- CLG has provided credibility to preservation efforts and “legitimacy” as a function of local government

Fast Facts About Your Local Youth Service Bureau

CT Department of Education

A Youth Service Bureau is defined by the Connecticut Legislature as:

“An agency operated directly by one or more municipalities, or a private agency designated to act as an agent of one or more municipalities. Its purpose is to provide evaluation, planning, coordination and implementation of prevention, intervention, and treatment services for delinquent, pre-delinquent, pregnant, parenting and troubled youth, and for the provision of youth to develop positively and to function as responsible members of their communities.”

General Statute 10-9

A Community Partnership

The vast majority of Youth Service Bureaus in Connecticut serve individual towns under the umbrella of municipal government.

Fewer than ten bureaus statewide are set up as private non-profit corporations. AHM was established in 1983 through a legal partnership with the three municipalities and later formed a program-funding partnership with the four local school districts.

AHM's Mentoring Program

- The mentoring program has been funded largely by the Savings Bank of Manchester Charitable Foundation since 2008.
- Lanterns Mentoring Program is going into its 20th year this coming school year
- 23 student/mentor pairs currently enrolled between 2nd and 12th grade
- This year we had 2 students graduate high school who had been with the same mentors for 10 years
- 8 out of 23 students in the program have been with the same mentor for more than 5 years
- Students are referred to the program by teachers, social workers or guidance counselors
- Currently at 5 schools (RHAM high, RHAM middle, Andover Elementary, Hebron Elementary, Marlborough Elementary)

Comments from mentor surveys:

-“I never realized how much I personally would get out of this program. It truly has changed my attitude about volunteering.”

- -“As a mentor, I receive much personal satisfaction for investing my time into helping a young person grow and develop into a responsible and caring adult.”

-“I have found that my involvement in the Lanterns program has been as rewarding for me as I hope it has been for my mentee. I have a strong sense of purpose with the work that I do with my mentee. We have built a strong bond and a level of trust that I think is making a difference in his life, and mine as well. he knows I will always be there when and if he ever needs me.”
